On Stage in North Carolina

Your guide to this season's array of professional touring cultural attractions, brought to you by members of the NC
Presenters Consortium.

ON STAGE IN NORTH CAROLINA, the official calendar of touring events presented by the members of the NC Presenters Consortium, is made possible through the generous support of TIAA-CREF (corporate sponsor to NCP), the NC Arts Council (a state agency), and members of the NC Presenters Consortium (a not-for-profit organization).

The outstanding talent of tonight's stars is reflected in the great appreciation of their audience.

Which, not surprisingly, is where you'll find us.

Across the country, TIAA-CREF is proud to help support the performing arts.

Because we provide financial services to over two million people nationwide, we're committed to their communities and their quality of life. We hope you enjoy tonight's performance.

Welcome to what's happening
On Stage
in North Carolina

This handy guide lists more than 500 professional touring attractions scheduled at 50+ venues from the mountains to the coast during the coming year. Each venue is a member of North Carolina Presenters Consortium, one of the nation's largest and most effective performing arts presenting networks, whose mission is to bring audiences and artists together throughout our grand state.

Whether you're heading to charming theatres in small towns or expansive urban arts centers, consider On Stage in North Carolina your invitation to invigorating performances spanning the spectrum from jazz to bluegrass, opera to modern dance, Broadway musicals, ballet, children's theatre, world music, riveting drama and everything in-between.

Visit www.ncpresenters.org for an even more-detailed statewide calendar with convenient links to performing arts centers throughout the state. Contact the convention & visitor bureaus listed with each venue in this guide for helpful information on loads of services offered in these NC communities. And see each issue of Our State magazine for a full-page listing of more events taking place on Tar Heel stages for the coming month.

It's an undisputable fact that North Carolina is abundant with an unparalleled wealth of cultural diversity and artistic resources. Come see us — and take time to take in a show. This “state we're in” is about as good as it gets!
